

Bearcat Day 1 – Ginter Enrichment

Nutrients are substances found in food that give our body energy, repair different organs and tissues, and help the body function properly. How do we get these substances out of the food and into the cells that need them?

Which 2 body systems work together to get nutrients to all parts of the body? Explain how they work together to deliver them to all of the cells.